Fopic of the Day: Intimacy Post Ostomy Creation

- Basic Needs are addressed during post-operative admission and readmission.
- Speaking about intimate relationships is difficult for many to address with their healthcare providers. We have brought the conversation to you
- Please welcome Dr. Tova Ablove, Urogynecologist, UBMD Obstetrics & Gynecology, Female Pelvic Medicine & Reconstructive Surgery Specialist, Clinical Associate Professor at Jacobs School of Medicine and Miomedical Sciences, University at Buffalo.
