

3rd Marie Sklodowska-Curie Symposium on Cancer Research and Care

Roswell Park Comprehensive Center, Buffalo, NY
September 20-22, 2023

Sponsorship opportunities available

Our goal is to promote collaborations between cancer researchers and care providers, biotech, pharma, nonprofit organizations and policymakers from the U.S., Canada, and countries of Central and Eastern Europe, to accelerate the development and clinical testing of new cancer treatments and improving patient care.

By sponsoring this conference, you will have the opportunity to meet leading clinical oncology investigators from the US, Canada, Central and Eastern Europe and participate in the free exchange of ideas for new clinical trials and other collaborative research initiatives.
