It is recommended that non-vaccinated participants wear a mask in the shared space.

I welcome the storm as my terrible guest. It thunders through my bones, washing shadows from my soul and leaves...my heart cleansed, my wings new.

MY FEARS AT REST.

- ALISON ASHER
PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This program is for adults who have experienced the loss of a spouse, parent, or other loved one. The purpose is to offer understanding, suggestions for coping, support, friendship, and most of all hope to adults in an in-person setting. We will all have to face the death of someone we love sometime. Surviving the feelings of sadness and loss is a process that involves both emotional and behavioral reactions. This grieving process takes us through the initial response of shock and sadness, through acceptance and understanding, and eventually to the rebuilding of our lives. Join us for these sessions to gain a better understanding of the grieving process and some ideas about how you may be able to help yourself through this difficult time. We want to assist you on your journey.

Sincerely,
Rev. Dr. Melody Rutherford,
Director of Spiritual Care

FEELINGS YOU MAY EXPERIENCE

• Sadness
• Loneliness
• Anger
• Rage
• Fear
• Numbness
• Phobias
• Purposelessness
• Self-Pity

Feelings of loss tend to be very painful, and we may feel like avoiding the intensity of these difficult emotions. It is as if by not experiencing the pain we can somehow avoid the reality that someone we care about has passed away.

COMMON REACTIONS

Throughout the recovery process, people who are grieving may experience many reactions:

• Shock
• Emotional release
• Depression
• Physical symptoms of distress
• Anxiety
• Hostility
• Guilt
• Hesitancy to renew normal activities
• Healing of memories
• Acceptance of one’s new role in life

FEELINGS YOU MAY EXPERIENCE

COMMON THOUGHTS

• “It’s not real.”
• “I can’t handle this.”
• “Am I always going to feel like this?”
• “I should have done more.”

The reality, however, is that we cannot avoid the pain of grief forever. On the other hand, by expressing our feelings we can begin to move forward and to heal from the loss.

GOALS

The goal of the Grief Educational Program is to identify some of the common struggles we share as we experience the grief journey. The first step to coping with grief is to have people who support you on your journey to healing and inner peace.
