

C3IC Facility Survey
Topic: Neutropenic Precautions
Question(s)	City of Hope Cancer Center	Dana Farber Cancer Institute/BWH	The James Cancer Center	Karmanos Cancer Institute	MSKCC	Roswell Park Cancer Institute	Siteman Cancer Center @ Barnes- Jewish Hospital & WUSM	USC/Norris Cancer Hospital	UC San Diego	University of Texas/MD Anderson Cancer Center
Do you use neutropenic precautions for neutropenic patients? Y/N	yes	Yes	Yes	YES	yes	Yes	Yes -	Yes	Yes	Yes
If yes, precautions used on: 1.all patients 2. all sCT pts 3. all heme pts 4. other?	All Heme patients on every admission regardless of Neutropenia status	Yes	Yes for all neutropenic patients	use for allo transplants and induction therapy	all SCT patients	Yes for all neutropenic patients	immunocompromised and neutropenic patients	Yes for all neutropenic patients	Yes for all neutropenic patients	All SCT patients, some heme patients per physician
If yes to neutropenic precautions, what practices do you use: 1. Mask 2. Gloves 3. Other?	Mask & gloves	Staff: Good hand hygiene	mask	No mask, gloves Allo transplants housed on HEPA filtered unit	mask and gloves	No	No mask or gloves. Hand Hygiene before and after care. Staff may not enter if they have fever, muscle aches, diarrhea, or respiratory infection.	mask	mask	mask and gloves
Do patients mask whe when outside the room?	Yes - N95	Yes-N95 (non-onc pod patients wear surgical mask	yes	Yes, when off BMT unit	yes	Yes	Yes -	Yes	Yes	Yes

[illegible]

