Thank you

“I wanted to thank you for giving me the opportunity to serve as a Nurse Intern at RPCI. It was an amazing two month journey for me. This internship has definitely increased my desire in pursuing a career in nursing. You and your staff were extremely welcoming and helpful, and offered me a terrific professional experience. Once again, thank you for an opportunity for being part of RPCI!”

FAQs regarding the Roswell Park Cancer Institute Nursing Summer Internship Program 2015

Q: What is meant by “You will need to provide documentation that you are enrolled in a credit-bearing course for this internship? You must provide proof of registration for this course in order to begin employment.”
A: In the event you are offered a position and you accept, you will be required to provide an Official transcript proving you will be enrolled in a class offering you credits for interning here for the time of the program. E.g. Independent Study is acceptable. An English class is not acceptable.

Q: What is the cost of parking?
A: The parking at RPCI varies, the most convenient is the main parking ramp and it costs $9.00 per day.

Q: What is meant by “Wait list”?
A: After all primary selections have been made and offered there may be some select few that will receive notification of being placed on a “Wait List”. This does not mean you have been rejected or accepted. This simply means we are waiting for responses from the other applicants at this time and in the event of a declined offer you will receive another notification from us.

Q: What is the dress requirement for the internship?
A: The dress code during the orientation week is business casual. The remaining seven weeks you will be required to wear your school uniform scrubs.

Q: Will there be vacation time?
A: You will be expected to work 40 hours per week for 8 weeks of the full program. There will be no vacations granted during the internship program time frame.

Q: When will we know if we were accepted into the program and how?
A: Roswell will review all the candidates and send you an email to inform you of your application status by March 2, 2015.

Q: Is the internship on a Voluntary basis?
A: The internship position is a paid, temporary position at Roswell Park.
